and what have you

The Christmas decorations hanging across North Central Avenue has many people wondering who has torn off too many pages of their calendar. The decoration was put up by the Board of Community Development to get the opinion of the townspeople as to whether they would like to buy 15 strings like the sample to replace the lights used in years past.

An effort was made by the Trade Committee to secure used decorations, but none were available. They decided to see if Hamlin would want to dress up the city for Christmas with new lights.

The string that was placed across Central was furnished by the company so that the public would have a better idea of what the town would look like in its new dress.

As with most projects involving the downtown area the first thought is to let the merchants buy the decorations if they want them. But in a projects costing over $3,500, as this one would, it will have to be wanted by the whole town and supported by the whole town to become a reality.

If Hamlin could be decorated with new decorations this year it would help bring more people in from the surrounding area and would also be something the people of Hamlin could be very proud.

An effort is being made by the BCD to enlist the aid of the women's clubs of Hamlin to take part on the project of raising money from the residential area. At this time, the clubs have not held their first fall meeting and it is not known whether or not they will undertake this as a project.

This would be a fine undertaking for the clubs and, if put over, would help give everyone a sense of pride in our town.

The Herald would appreciate hearing from our readers as to their views on the decorations.

The family and I spent the weekend in Cisco visiting friends after the ballgame and the people of Cisco that we talked to were highly impressed with the Pipers. The Cisco Press stated that the Pipers were probably the best team the Lobos have on their schedule this year.

Naturally, they were disappointed in losing by such a one-sided score after going into the play-offs for the last two years, but they were aware that they had a big job of rebuilding to do this year.

When we left Cisco we stopped on Highway 80 at the Cisco Jaycee Coffee Stop, which was kept open by the club 24-hours a day during the holiday. They had from four to eight men on the job at all times. Jaycee members across the state who gave up so much of their time during the holidays for this project should be commended.

Football Boys Guest of Baptist Brotherhood

The Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday night and had members of the Hamlin Pied Piper football squad and their coaches as their guests.

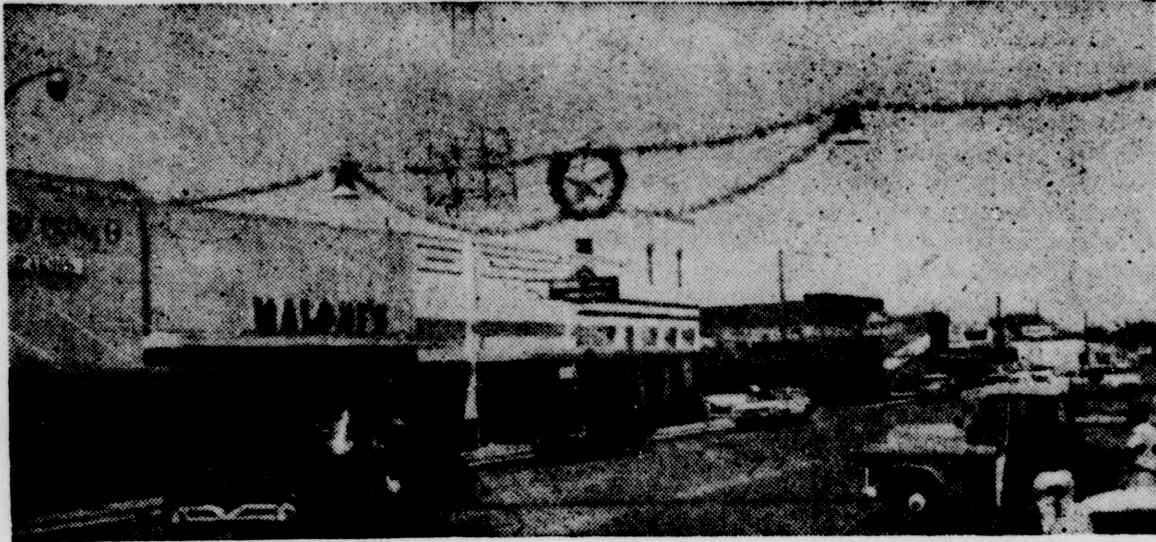

Dr. William O. Beasley of Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, was guest speaker.

Coaches D. C. Andrews, Jimmy Vaughn, Neil Laminack and Edd Farmer and 35 football players were present for the dinner meeting.

Young Farmers To Meet Tonight

The Hamlin Young Farmers Club will meet at the V. A. building tonight (Thursday) at 8:00 o'clock. Dr. Heidebrink of the Paymaster Co. in Abilene, will speak to the group on nutrition.

August 26 the group had a watermelon and skiing party at West Lake which was well attended.

EARLY CHRISTMAS? — The Christmas decoration strung across North Central last week has many wondering if we are in for an early Christmas. The decoration was put up by the West Texas Utilities Company for the Board of Community Development who are trying to determine if the people of Hamlin would like to "dress up" downtown Hamlin this year with new decorations.

J. M. Lanning of Sylvester was presented a plaque Tuesday at noon by the Hamlin Lions Club as the Outstanding Conservation Farmer in the Hamlin Area for 1960.

Lanning was selected by the board of supervisors of the Upper Clear Fork Soil Conservation District.

George Campbell, president, presented the plaque on behalf of the club.

The selection was based on the conservation practices that he has undertaken to improve his land.

He has rootplowed and seeded over 200 acres of brushland; built over a mile of cross fences to better utilize rangeland for proper use and defer grazing; has instigated and is carrying out a conservation cropping system; but has planned additional rootplowing and re-seeding, cross fences, pond for livestock water and has planned a complete conservation treatment for each acre of his land to meet the needs of the land.

Laywell holds a B. S. degree in animal husbandry from Southwest Texas State. He assisted in the field of veterinary medicine at San Marcos and has had several years of ranching and on-the-farm experience. He has been an instructor in vocational agriculture and has acted as swine judge at livestock judging contests.

The short course is scheduled to begin September 12 at 8:00 p.m. in the vocational agriculture building in Hamlin on September 14 and 15 are scheduled in the vocational agriculture building at Anson High School.

During the dates the short course is in progress, Laywell will be available to assist students with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instructions, according to Blankinship.

Farmers interested in attending the short course should write or call Cook, Superintendent of schools, or the teachers of vocational agriculture, Blankinship or Milburn Wink. An entry fee of $2.00 will be charged. Swine Husbandry Short Course Certificates are to be presented to each student who attends all the training sessions.

bles in the "Parade of Bands" on the closing day of the Fair, September 17.

A graduate of Hamlin High School this spring, Miss Richey was sweetheart for the local Future Farmers of America chapter and was sponsored by that group in the competition for the sweetheart title.

She was also band drum major and served in many offices during her high school years.

Miss Richey holds a state degree in homemaking, which is the highest award offered in the Future Homemakers of America. This award is presented for outstanding accomplishments in the field of homemaking as well as personal achievements.

As one of the 10 state officers in the FHA, she attended the Honor Award Banquet at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas last fall. There were about 40 young people honored at this time, including representatives from 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers of America.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church gave her a junior life membership in the organization for her outstanding work in the Methodist youth program. She has served as local president, sub-district president and area Faith Chairman in the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

The Richey family moved to Hamlin in 1951. The late Mr. Richey was senior resident engineer of the Hamlin Residency of the Texas Highway Department until his death in February, 1956.

She will serve as the Fair's official hostess and will make a stage appearance on the opening night of the Fair which will be held at the Exposition Center September 12-17. She and the 16 other contestants will ride in separate convertibles.

Mrs. Lydia R. Withers, 88, of Hamlin is the only Jones County beneficiary among the 5,488 charter social security beneficiaries who were entitled to benefits for January, 1940, the first month any such benefits were payable. She is one of the six in the sixteen-county Abilene district who began entitlement in that month.

She gave R. R. Tuley, Jr., district manager of the Abilene social security district written person to use her name. This was necessary because all social security matters are confidential.

Mrs. Withers filed her claim on November 21, 1939, thinking she might retire at the end of the year. She later changed her mind and continued to work for Hassen Dry Goods in Hamlin for another two years, and might still be doing so had it not been for an automobile accident on January 30, 1942.

Thus, although she had qualified as a "charter beneficiary" she actually did not begin to receive payments until February, 1942 because of her continued employment.

Mrs. Withers is very active and enjoys taking care of her home at 118 Southwest Ave. A. She is never idle. She likes to

City to Let Paving In Next Few Days

Bids were opened Friday on the estimated $50,000 paving project for the City of Hamlin. It will be several days before the contract will be let. The city must check each block to determine that all of the money has been turned in before the contract can be approved.

Mayor John Howard Jr. said several bids were received for the job Friday, some of which he termed "out of reason." He said about two bids were in line with estimates made by W. W. Greif, project engineer from Snyder. Greif was hired on a retainer basis by the city to engineer the project.

Greif estimated it will cost homeowners $2 per foot for the paving on streets with curbs. On streets without curbs, paving cost estimates are $3.35 per foot.

Orville Roland, manager of the Board of Community Development, said there is a possibility 15 additional blocks may be added to the project. At present there are seven blocks on the north side of town and eight on the south side on which final approval for work is being held up by balking homeowners.

Residents have until the contractor arrives to decide about paving their blocks, Howard said he expects work to get underway with a week to 10 days after the contract is awarded.

The paving will be a soil cement base with an asphalt and gravel surface.

Roland said that the present 23 blocks ready for paving are: Two blocks on NW Ave. A; four blocks on NW Ave. B; one block on 1st St. from Ave. B. to C; one block on NW 1st St. below Ave. A and B; One block of side street on 3rd St.; one block between NW Ave. C and NW Ave. B; one block from NW Ave. A to NW Central;

four blocks on NW Ave. F; one block on NW Ave. H; one block on NW Ave. G; one block on SW Ave. E; two blocks on NW Ave. I; one block from Lake Drive on SW Ave. H; one block from Lake Drive on SW Ave. F; and one block of Lake Drive on Ave. G. Five blocks of "tadly needed" work on SW 5th St., is being held up, Roland said. The street leads to Hamlin ball park. Roland said half the money has been raised for the paving project.

Nazarene College to Start Fall Term

It begins the first step for many children on the journey of life's great highway, and for others it may mean the choosing of the right road towards success in life. Every normal parent has a hope built up for his child and looks to the school room as one of the avenues of attaining that hope.

School System Sets Attendance Record

September 13, 1935

That fellow Sip Low is not asleep as much as some may think. He can shut one eye and see farther than most of these "moderns" about over Texas.

He takes a pride in the lovely, modern Frigid-Counter, recently installed. He says "meats' meat" and its better when chilled, and makes a person hungry to see it in that new counter. Just go look at it. This is one of the first in Hamlin.

Monday morning was a big day for Hamlin school system. It was marked by the greatest number of students so far this city has ever had.

The two plants, had unusually good opening programs, and the chief point in everyone's remarks was a wide-welcome to the high school students coming to Hamlin for the first time.

15 YEARS AGO—

New Elevator Built by L. H. McBride

September 14, 1945

This year has been a dandy good grain year for the Hamlin territory, and many additional facilities have been established to handle it. A new elevator and office has been built by L. H. McBride, and he has moved his cotton office from over the bank to his new location one block east on the Santa Fe right-of-way. Here, he has everything in compact arrangement, including the weighing and unloading and the car-loading. Also a large sample room for cotton convenience, and especially good window space for natural lighting. McBride's new place has three street connections, one from the north, Farwell Avenue; one from the west, by the bank, 9th Street, and one by the railroad up by the depot and the cold storage plant, making his location convenient to all traffic.

Once upon a time, Hamlin, Texas had the distinction of being the smallest paved-street town in Texas. Old timers will

Fort Worth Has the Time

Texans have a big time. They also have a big time-piece.

Fact of the matter is, it's the world's largest. It is the clock that's atop the 30-story Continental Bank Building in Fort Worth.

Time is controlled by a microwave radio from the U. S. Observatory in Washington, D. C.

The clock itself is five stories high. It weighs 77 tons and the numerals are so large—25 feet high and nine feet wide—that the clock can be read a distance of five miles.

Gonzales Honors Flag

A plaque commemorating the making of the first battle flag of Texas hangs on the walls of the museum at Gonzales, in South Texas, the town where the flag was made.

It was the first flag on which the now famous "lone star" was used.

This flag carried the words "Come and Take It" in answer to the Mexican's Army's demand for the return of the Gonzales cannon. The cannon had been given to the Texans by the Mexicans for defense against the Indians.

Good Enuf for Comstock

Springs that provide some 116,000,000 gallons of water per day should be good enough for anybody.

People in the Southwestern Texas town of Comstock decided long ago that such springs were good enough for them, so they named them "Good Enough Springs."

The springs are located just south of Comstock, in Val Verde County, and their fine waters feed the Rio Grande River.

Famous Tree Near Rockport

You won't believe it until you see it yourself.

It's the largest live oak in the world, and it's located by Goose Island State Park near Rockport, in Aransas County, on the Gulf Coast.

This majestic symbol of the ages is more than 2,000 years old, having burst into life a hundred years before the birth of Christ.

From its majestic trunk, branches spread forth 118 feet to shade the approximate area of a city block.

Famous San Antonio Fort

Teddy Roosevelt trained his Rough Riders in Texas in the same fort that housed such outstanding generals as Grant, Lee, Sheridan and Hood.

It's the 3,000 acre Fort Sam Houston, the greatest Army post in the United States. It is located within the confines of San Antonio.

Old "Fort Sam" dates back to the pre-Civil-War days and still is active today. Much of the old atmosphere remains.

It's a sight to see, whether you're interested in the activities of today or of yesterday.

Texas Has Taj Mahal

The Mission La Bahia del Espiritu Santo, located in Goliad, north of Corpus Christi, is often called the "Taj Mahal of Texas."

Established in 1749, the mission stands proudly today in a rare and enviable beauty—a reverent beauty that is only bestowed upon the great during the ages.

Near the mission is the site of the infamous massacre of General Fannin and his Texas soldiers by the troops of the Mexican General Santa Anna.

FAIRVIEW NEWS--

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

As the climax to a contest between Sunday School and the Training Union in average attendance, the Fairview Baptist Church met at the Oil Mill Guest House Tuesday night of last week for a King and Beggar banquet.

The training union being the loser, officers came dressed as beggars and had to sit on the floor to eat, begging food from the winners sitting at tables.

Ed Croan, manager of Winn's variety store, entertained with a program of magic tricks.

Thirty eight persons were present including the following visitors: Mrs. Bob Craig, Beth, Darrell and Rickey, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Mayo, Freddie, Eddie and Royce; Darlene, Rose and Michael Sanders.

Mr. Mayo is a cousin of Mrs. W. O. Gray in whose home they were visiting. Their home is in Graham.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Holmes over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Holmes, Midland, and Mrs. Jimmy Holmes' two sisters, Helen Waggoner from Midland and Dorothy Waggoner from San Angelo. Other visitors in the Holmes' home Sunday were Rev. and Mrs. Doyle Combs and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright and Melinda Kay.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Johnson and two little sons, from Amarillo, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gray, and attended church Sunday.

Connie Drake started pulling bolls Monday morning, one of the first to start.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner had his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kee, Lubbock, and their brother, Winifred Joiner, San Antonio, as guests over the Labor Day weekend. Other visitors Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Runt McCoy, Kay and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Joiner, Jeannie and Ronald, all of Hamlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hodnett, Kay and Billy spent the weekend in Colorado City.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones went to Albany Sunday to visit her brother, John Carter. Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. John Ash, and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dorsey, Grand Prairie and another brother, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carter and Barbara, Albany, a nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Shoffet and three children, also from Grand Prairie, were all visiting in the Carter home, almost making a family reunion.

Making a business call in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner last Monday night were O. D. McCauley and Arthur Schurlack, Fort Worth. Mr. Schurlack is the new manager of the McKinnon farms and other interests around Neida and various other sections of west Texas, which are taken care of by the trust department of the Fort Worth National Bank, which position Mr. McCauley has held for a number of years.

The women of the Fairview Church have discontinued the paper collection as stated in last week's paper, but to those that might have missed the notice, the ladies wish to say again that owing to the low price of paper waste and expense involved in collecting it, they will not call for any more papers. Again, they wish to thank all those that helped in any way.

Rev. John C. Jenkins, pastor of Woodrow Baptist Church, south of Lubbock, and children, Jarrell and Jana, visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Jenkins two days last week.

Also visiting in the Jenkins' home at the same time were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jenkins of Lorenzo.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Goodwin and Linda went to Spur Monday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hogan.

VOTERS GIVEN ANOTHER TEST ON LEGISLATIVE PAY RAISES

Texas voters apparently look beyond their immediate vote to the results or consequences of their decision. At least that's the indication if the last election on Constitutional Amendments can be taken as an example.

While past actions at the polls indicated a tendency by Texans to approve rather than reject changes in the Texas Constitution, Legislators nevertheless were handed a rebuff at that time when voters said "No" to a pay raise request.

While a similar amendment (No. 3) is on the ballot this year, it is considerably different from the previous version. Two years ago a proposed amendment suggested annual sessions of the Legislature, $7200 per year for Members, virtually unlimited expenses, etc.

Amendment No. 3, on the Nov. 8th ballot, confines itself to a more modest pay raise and "per-day" expenses for Members, and also sets up other limitations. Voters are asked to approve an annual salary for Members of the Legislature of not to exceed $4800 Per year, and a per diem allowance of not more than $12.00 per day for the first 120 days only of each Regular Session, and for 30 days of each Special Session. Regular Sessions would be limited to 140 days.

Many voters have already discovered that Amendment No. 4 is actually a "two-part" amendment. The first half devotes itself to classifying loans and lenders, licensing and regulating lenders. The second half has been the great "bone of contention" in all hearings on the loan problem in Texas.

At the present time the Constitution of Texas holds the ceiling on interest rates at ten (10%) per cent. Although the proposed amendment to be voted on Nov. 8th provides "a maximum rate of interest indications are that the legislature will not long be absent in fixing this maximum rate. A three (3%) per cent monthly limit is one alternate proposal for Texas.

Hamlinites Make Tour With H-SU Cowboy Band

Tim Jones, local band director, accompanied by Everett Gibson and Bryan Shelburne, former students of Hamlin High, have recently returned from a tour to Detroit, Michigan, with the Hardin-Simmons Cowboy Band.

Pied Pipers Run Over Cisco Loboes, 36 to

The Pied Pipers opened up the 1960 football season with an explosive blast that handed the Cisco Loboes their first regular season loss in two years. The Pipers in downing the Loboes, 36-6, so completely controlled the first half that the Loboes were held to 35 yards and no first downs.

The Loboes came alive in the second half as they outrushed the Pipers 137 yards to 90.

Coach D. C. Andrews started liberal substitution in the second quarter and continued it through the balance of the game.

The games leading rusher was Don McCrary of Cisco with 111 yd. in 18 carries. Frankie Lee was high for Hamlin with 108 yards in 20 tries. Mike Bond was next for Hamlin with 42 yards in 9 attempts. He was followed by Stanley Austin with 23 yards in 2 trips.

Bond was the game's top passer with 6 of 9 completions for 111 yards. Austin hit 2 of 5 for 39 yards.

Bond carried for one touch-down and passed for two more and two points after. Austin crossed the double stripe twice to take top scoring for the night.

The Piper defensive stand-outs would read like their roster with Stanley Austin, Rayford Williams, Robert Woodruff, David Bonds, Bill Richey, Jimm Cooper and Bob Murrif playing exceptionally heads-up ball.

Defensive standout for Cisco was Jim Sitton.

Cisco opened the game with an on-side kick taken by Jerry Duncan who was downed on the Cisco 47. From there Joe Ford hit the left side for four and Frankie Lee took the ball from Mike Bond on the option to the left and then cut to the middle for 16. Bond kept on the next play and went into the end zone standing up. Lee carried over for the two points after.

Jim Cooper kicked off for Hamlin and Cisco returned it 15 yards to their 35. In two Woodruff recovered the first of plays they netted seven yards and on the next play Robert five Cisco fumbles.

From the Lobo 42 Lee's run was cancelled by a clipping penalty that netted the Pipers a five yard loss. Bond carried around his right end for two and then passed to Robert Brandon in the left flat for 22. He hit Ford on the right for eight and Lee went over right guard for six. Bond kept for four and then found Jerald McCannies open in the end zone for a 11 yard TD pass. Lee again made the two extra points with power over the middle.

Cooper kicked off with Cisco returning the ball to their 34 from where on the first play a whole host of Piper defenders swarmed into the backfield and Woodruff recovered his second fumble.

From the Lobo 37 Lee carried over left guard for four. Bond kept for three and Lee picked up one. On fourth down, with the Loboes defense in tight, Lee skirted his left end for 10 and a first down. Bond hit David Bonds with a 19 yard pass in the end zone. Bond passed to McCannies for the two points.

After the kick off Cisco failed to move the ball and punted 33 yards to the Hamlin 32. Stanley Austin tried a pass to McCannies which was dropped and then had his next one intercepted by Kenneth Kinney who returned it to the Cisco 47.

After one play for no gain, Cisco lost the ball again on a fumble with Hamlin recovering on the Lobo 49.

Bond passed to Jim Cooper for 31 yards, but was trapped with the ball on the next play and lost 11 yards. The Pipers drew a 15 yard penalty on the next play and were back on the 44 yard line. After an incomplete pass, Bond hit Bonds for a 22 yard gain. This was short of the first down and the next pass fell incomplete and for the first time in the game the Pipers lost the ball on downs.

Cisco gained four yards as the first quarter came to an end. On the first play of the second quarter Bonds intercepted a Lobo pass and returned it to the Cisco 45.

MOTORISTS REMINDED TO DRIVE CAREFULLY AROUND SCHOOLS

With more than 2,250,000 children attending Texas schools this September, motorists were being urged to adjust their driving habits accordingly by J. O. Musick, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association.

"Give a brake to our youngsters when nearing a school," he urged.

"It is very appropriate for us to pause at this time of the year when children began their training to prepare themselves for life, that we prepare ourselves through better driving habits to make it possible for them to live," Musick said.

Almost 200,000 youngsters full of anxiety will be going to school for the first time and will be a particular hazard from a safety standpoint. Although there is a tendency to think in items of youngsters entering school for the first time, each age level has its particular safety hazards.

"While we have 200,00 starting school, there is another 115,000 reaching driving age. Congestion around Junior High Schools and High Schools is presenting greater traffic hazards each year," Musick pointed out.

Elementary schools will show a total enrollment of approximately 1,598,000. Children on bicycles present a particular hazard around these schools.

Parents were urged not to send children to school without going over basic safety precautions such as cross streets only at intersections and on direction of the Safety Patrol. ride bicycles on the right hand side of the road and move in the same manner direction as automobiles, use hand signals when riding bicycles, walk facing (or on the left hand side) traffic; and above all else, "Don't turn your youngster loose behind a ton of steel and bolts unless you can depend on him to obey traffic laws, exercise reasonable judgment and has in his possession a valid driver's license," Musick cautioned.

While parents are cautioning children about traffic problems, they owe it to the children to examine their own driving habits. "One of the best safety devices we know of is a child who watches the speedometer while his parents drive," Musick declared. "Whenever you have a child in the car with you drive as if you were teaching him to drive—because you are," he said.

NEVER leave an infant at home regardless of the weather. "Far too often we hear of cases where a mother doesn't want to take a small child out in rainy weather and thinks it will only take five minutes to run over to school and back," Musick said. The result too often is that the mother gets tied up in a traffic jam at school and gets home 15 to 20 minutes later to find the home ablaze.

School is a thrilling experience of learning for children. "Let's help children learn the thrill of finding out that adults care for them—and are willing to protect them through safety," he said.

68 Stonewall 4-H'ers To Enter District Record Contest

Stonewall County will enter 56 Junior and 12 Senior Records in the District Records Contest this year. The 4-H'ers of the County are entering in every category in the District. All the records have been filled out by these 4-H'ers with the help of adult leaders, junior leaders, and this agent.

Some of the Junior 4-H'ers have entered for the first time and have only a couple of pictures and a few newspaper clippings, but a lot of the records should win Blue Ribbons. All Records have standard report forms and all other necessary information as do Senior Records.

In the Senior Records, Sandy Leverett will enter his Record in the Santa Fe Award. Sharon Leverett in Recreation, Terry Gholson in Achievement, Samford Woodruff in tractor maintenance, Billie Ann Vahlenkamp, in beef, Florence Erdman in crops, Helen Diers in leadership, Charles Diers in swine, Kathy Erdman in garden, all these are from Old Glory 4-H clubs. George Malouf Tells of His Return to Birthplace After 40 Year Absence

George R. Malouf, owner of Malouf's Department Store here, returned to his birthplace after an extended visit to his family in Lebanon. It was his first time to return since leaving there 40 years ago.

In Lebanon, he inquired about the difference in the layout of the capital city of Lebanon and was told that Beirut is the French version of the city and is shorter.

The following is an account of his trip:

By GEORGE MALOUF

On May 30th I left Abilene, Texas, by plane to begin the first leg of my journey to the Middle East. Forty years ago when I left my Native land of Lebanon, I was aboard ship 21 days before reaching New York, but my return was somewhat faster.

I left New York by Pan American's 707 Jet Airliner and after six hours and 35 minutes later

I was in Paris. On the flight over the Atlantic, the pilot announced we were flying at 33,000 feet altitude and at the slow speed of 570 miles per hour. We had an hour in Paris and as the plane landed quite a long way from the terminal, we were transported by bus to the terminal and each passenger was given a courtesy card that entitled her or she to a free soft drink, or coffee. You paid for your hard drinks with your own good American money.

The flight to Rome lasted one and a half hours and again we had an hour lay over. From Rome to Beyrouth the flight was three and one half hours long.

When I landed in Beyrouth I was greeted by a crowd of 64. Two of my three sisters met me and my nieces, nephews and a host of friends and relatives. As my old home is approximately 25 miles from Beyrouth, up in the mountains, we went by car. The next two days were very joyous as the entire population of about 300 came to see me. I recognized very few people, because 40 years had made grandfathers out of the boys I remembered as 10 and 12 years old.

After a few days rest I hired a car and visited the famous Cedars of Lebanon, there I met lots of American tourists, and of course Texas was well represented. It is very cool at the Cedars as the elevation is 8000 feet. From there we went to the ruins of the Great Temples of Baalbeck. These Temples were built by the Romans in honor of the three Gods of Venus, Jupiter and Mercury. and the first record we have of them is of the year 200 to 264 B. C. History tells us that the great devastation was caused by an earthquake in 1750. On this same trip I visited the Grottoes of Jeheethah. The water is wonderful here as it comes from underground springs and is cold and pure.

My next trip was to Jerusalem. I took a car in order to go to the ruins of Jericho, and to see Damascus. It was very hot as most of the route lay along the dead sea and we were 1200 feet below sea level. In Damascus I saw the famous Mosque Amawy. The guide told us that there were 1400 9x12 Persian rugs, all on one floor, laid one next to the other. We saw the tomb of Mohammed. It was a huge monument of stone, with heavy iron bars all around it, and only two doors away in a less elaborate setting is the so called tomb of John the Baptist. I still can't figure out why John the Baptist would be buried in a Moslem Mosque, however they call it the tomb of the Prophet Yehye.

The guide told us this story concerning the tomb: Many hundred years ago they decided to move John the Baptist to another resting place, and when they entered they found the entire place flooded with one foot of blood. After that they never attempted to move him again.

We passed through the Capitol of Jordan "Amman" and it was very noticeable that King Hussin has a good size army at his disposal.

When we arrived in Jerusalem we found a first class American Plan Hotel and stayed there. The place was full of American tourists. For the next three days I went on a guided tour of all the sacred places in the section of Jerusalem that I had a permit to visit. I saw the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, The Mount of Olives, The Garden of Gethsemane. The way the city is divided between the Jews and Arabs caused me to miss seeing the wailing wall of the Jews. otherwise I feel that I saw the things that are closer to the Christian's heart, and it is a very humbling experience.

The highlight of my visit was seeing the Church of the Nativity, the place that Christ was born.

When I returned to Beyrouth I took a plane instead of retracing that hot route by car.

Dodge Lancer Name Picked from 250,000 Word List

DETROIT—Names for new cars are not pulled from a hat Dodge had 250,000 words examined before adopting "Lancer" as the name for its new entry into the compact field.

Dodge General Manager M. C. Patterson said Lancer was chosen "because it was best identified as both a car and as a Dodge product. We believe this distinctive identity would be vitally important because the public will have nearly 100 brand and model series names of American cars to remember in 1961."

The word selection was done for Dodge by James Vicary Co., the New York firm which researched and recommended the names for the Dart line, introduced by Dodge last fall.

RESEARCH IS KEY TO SOUTHWEST PROGRESS IN CHALLENGING YEARS AHEAD IN THE 1960'S

(This is first in a series of articles dealing with vital research programs in Southern and Southwestern universities that promise the master key for unlocking the region's vast treasures in the decade of the 1960's.)

ATLANTA, GA.—"I think research does mean a better South. It could mean a leading South."

With those words Governor Cecil H. Underwood of West Virginia, chairman of the Southern Regional Education Board, recently gave the Southern states a master key to progress in the challenging sixties.

Boosting Southern Income
Proof of the past effectiveness of research activities in the South is found in a look at the past two decades of research in the area.

Research has provided 50 to 75 per cent of the 250 per cent increase in the per capita income in the South since 1939.

Basic research on long-chain polymers has resulted in the development of nylon, the manufacture of which is located almost exclusively in the South.

University research into the electrical behavior of solids resulted in the development of transistors, of which a single Southern firm now provides one-third of the nation's supply.

More than half of the nation's chemical plants have located south of the Mason-Dixon Line in the last few years—a fact noteworthy since the chemical industry is one of the most research-minded of all industries.

Into the Space Age
Research has already launched the South into the age of space.

Ceramic engineers at Georgia Tech have discovered that ground fused silica molded at room temperature makes a substance so hard that it can be used for rocket nose cones. Their discovery could be the basis for a hundred million dollar nationwide industry.

Students and faculty at the University of Maryland designed the delicate instrument payload carried in the rocket which put the first U. S. satellite in orbit. The success of "Project Apside," brought personal congratulations from President Eisenhower.

University of South Carolina research into the effect of atomic waste on plant and animal life in the Savannah River area has provided a stockpile of information available for use at any other site where an atomic installation is planned.

These and other examples of important research have been cited by the Southern Regional Education Board in its recent publication — "University Research—What It Means to the South."

There are three major sources of support for research in the South—government; industry and the universities. Here we are primarily concerned with basic research in the universities.

Universities, then, lead in the discovery of principles and processes which may be adapted to technological and economic purposes.

New Breakthroughs Needed
"Our region needs the basic research our universities produce," said Dr. Robert C. Anderson, director of the SREB. "Without fundamental knowledge, and new breakthroughs

TONY CURTIS STARS IN 'THE RAT RACE' COMING SUNDAY

Two of Hollywood's most romantic young stars, Tony Curtis and Debbie Reynolds, are teamed in one of the important motion pictures of the season, Perleberg-Seaton's production of "The Rat Race," which opens Sunday at the Hamlin Theatres. Filmed in Technicolor, the Paramount production is an adaptation of Garson Kanin's Broadway play of the same name, and co-stars Jack Oakie, Kay Medford and Don Rickles. Three top jazz musicians, Joe Bushkin, Sam Butera and Gerry Mulligan, are featured in the music spiked drama.

Curtis will be seen as a young hopeful saxophonist from Milwaukee who hasn't the faintest idea of what he's getting into when he braves the rat race of New York City to make a career for himself. But Debbie Reynolds, a small town dance contest winner, does. She's had it by the time she meets Tony, who rents the room from which she is about to be dispossessed for non-payment of rent. Completely disenchanted, she's about struck bottom, earning her living as a dime-a-dance hall girl, trying desperately not to give in to the easy money bait held out by her boss.

The role offers Debbie her first opportunity to give a dramatic performance, and the gifted comedienne and song-and-dance girl is said to prove once again that there are no limits to her acting talent. As the cynical Peggy Brown in "The Rat Race" who falls in love with the irritating optimistic Tony, whom she considers a square, Debbie conquers the world of drama, adding another feather to her career cap. How she risks everything she holds dear to help Tony when the chips are down, tucking the ruthless dance hall owner with whom she has become involved, sparks the exciting action in the picture.

into the unknown, all the applied research of our industries will become stymied before long. Without the new scientific talent which our universities produce, our whole way of life would come to a standstill."

The South Lags in Research
By 1960, the nation as a whole is spending over $10 billion annually on research and development.

Expenditures for organized research in the South's publicly-supported universities have risen from $23 million to $58 million in six years—from 8 cent to 12.6 per cent of educational and general. The national average is 16 per cent.

In spite of its recent successes, the South still lags behind the rest of the nation in the amount of research produced. Though it holds 30 per cent of the nation's population, it provides only 17 per cent of the nation's research.

Here's what the new 3 3/4% interest rate on U.S. Savings Bonds means to you:

$3 = $4 fourteen months faster than before

The Bonds you own are better than ever, too

You can get your money, with interest, when you need it. Your Bonds are a ready reserve to use anytime you wish. But, it pays well to hold them.

Your savings can't be lost or stolen. The U.S. Government guarantees to replace your Bonds, free, if anything ever happens to them.

You save more than money. The Bonds you buy help keep the peace because peace costs money. Money for better education, new scientific research, greater military strength. And the money you save helps strengthen our nation's economy which depends on the financial strength of individuals to keep it sound.

Start saving with U.S. Savings Bonds today. You'll save more than money.

The new 3 3/4% rate means your savings grow faster than before with U.S. Savings Bonds. $3 becomes $4, or $3,000 becomes $4,000 in just seven years, nine months. This applies to all Series E Bonds bought since June 1, 1959.

Then, all older Bonds, both Series E and H, pay more now—an extra 1/4% from June 1 on, when held to maturity.

And, all Series E Bonds carry a new 10-year extension privilege. This means your Bonds will keep earning liberal interest automatically after maturity.

These three new cash benefits make today's U.S. Savings Bonds the finest in history. They make the ones you own now better, too.

More advantages of U.S. Savings Bonds

You can save automatically. Just tell your company how much to deduct every payday for Bonds, and your Bonds will be delivered to you. This way you can't forget to save. And, remember, the money you don't touch can't slip through your fingers.
